2nd Annual
Building Bridges: Islam Awareness Week
November 14-18, 2005

Monday, November 14
1 p.m.
“Trans-Cultural Nursing”
Najah Bazzy, an American Muslim discusses her work as a trans-cultural nurse
Nanticoke Room, Guerrieri University Center

6:30 p.m.
“The Truth about Women in Islam”
Najah Bazzy, featured in PBS documentary
Muhammad: Legacy of a Prophet
Caruthers Hall Auditorium

Tuesday, November 15
6:30 p.m.
National Geographic Documentary: Inside Mecca
Produced and directed by Anisa Mehdi followed by informal Q&A session by MSA
Wicomico Room, Guerrieri University Center

Wednesday, November 16
6:30 p.m.
“Truth & Consequences: Islam & Media Sensationalism”
Anisa Mehdi, Emmy Award-winning American Muslim journalist and director of Inside Mecca
Great Hall, Holloway Hall

Thursday, November 17
6:30 p.m.
“Toward Understanding the Qur’an”
Sohaib Sultan, author of Koran for Dummies and Muslim Chaplain at Trinity College
Wicomico Room, Guerrieri University Center

Friday, November 18
Noon-1 p.m.
Junaa Prayer—Muslim Friday Prayer
Spirituality Room, Guerrieri University Center (2nd floor)

1:30 p.m.
Open Reception at Fireside Lounge,
Guerrieri University Center

November 14-17, Noon-2 p.m. Book Fair and Information Table in Commons
Middle Eastern Pastries Sale / Islamic Book Sale to follow evening lectures

Events sponsored by the Muslim Student Association
For further information contact: sumsa@salisbury.edu
With support from the Office of Multiethnic Student Services and V.P. of Student Affairs

Salisbury
University
www.salisbury.edu