TYPES OF MEMBERSHIP

Membership in Alpha Epsilon Rho, the honor society within NBS, is open to active members of NBS. Members of AERho emphasize scholarship and an active participation in media related activities. Membership in AERho demonstrates excellence of work, leadership qualities and service to the organization, community and the industry.

Student Membership: Individuals should show a demonstrated interest in electronic media or a related. Student members must be affiliated with the NBS SU chapter. Specific membership qualifications can be found below.

Alumni/Professional Membership: Individuals must demonstrate an interest in the field of electronic media (including web/internet technologies and new media, broadcasting, mass communication, radio, television, cable, and/or film.). Alumni/professional members of NBS are also involved in the operation of chapters.

MEMBERSHIP CRITERIA:

- The student is an active member of The National Broadcasting Society;

- Has completed the equivalent of nine (9) semester credit hours (or 13.5 quarter hours) in a college or university program with a desired major Communication or an interest in radio, television, film, cable or electronic media studies

- Has a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.25 in all radio, television, film, cable or electronic media studies courses and a cumulative 3.00 minimum on all courses (on a 4.0 scale);

- Is in the upper 35% of his/her academic class - or - is a graduate student and member of National Broadcasting Society and is studying broadcasting, mass communications, or a related field. The grad student should have also completed half of his/her course work with a minimum 3.50 grade point average and is in the upper 35% of his/her academic class.