TYPES OF MEMBERSHIP

STUDENT MEMBERSHIP

Student membership includes undergraduate and graduate students who are currently enrolled at SU. Student members must be in good academic standing within the department of their major and the university. Those interested must also pay NBS national membership dues and provide support to the chapter. This includes participation in fundraising, community service and other endeavors. Upon payment of dues, a membership number will be assigned to the student giving her or him full access to membership privileges. Dues are $40.00 a year, and our colors are crimson and jade.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP

Professional membership is granted to those who demonstrate through their achievements or expressed interest, a clear willingness to participate in our aims and projects. Professional members must pay local dues and NBS national membership dues if they wish to affiliate with a chapter. Upon payment of dues, a membership number will be assigned and the member will have full access to membership privileges.

ALUMNI MEMBERSHIP

Alumni membership consists of former dues paying members of the National Broadcasting Society and Alpha Epsilon Rho. Alumni members may receive periodic updates on the organization if they keep their personal contact information up-to-date. Alumni members do not receive all of the membership privileges as paid, active members.

ALPHA EPSILON RHO MEMBERSHIP

Membership in Alpha Epsilon Rho, the honor society within NBS is open to the members of NBS who are pursuing degrees in electronic media (including web/internet technologies, new media, broadcasting, mass communication, radio, television, cable, film and/or electronic media, and are nominated into membership based on scholastic excellence and personal achievement.
